

Wind & Wings: Protecting birds around onshore wind infrastructure

23. November, 15:00 - 17:15 CET
(online)

Content
Welcome &amp; Introduction
Wind energy and bird protection – The Israeli case study Dr. Tareq Abu Hamed , CEO of Arava Institute for Environmental Studies Dr. Yoav Perlman , Director of Birdlife Israel A representative of the Israeli Ministry of Environment (TBC)
Importance of good planning, including sensitivity mapping tools to inform the siting of new windfarms Ivan Ramírez , Head of Avian Species Team at the UN Convention of Migratory Species
The MAPE research project: Reducing bird mortality in onshore windfarms in France Ana Maria Tobon , Project manager at MSH Sud Thierry Chambert , Postdoctoral researcher at CEFE-CNRS
Reactions by key stakeholders from industry and civil society
Q&amp;A and discussion